Expansion of South Island Back-Office Capacity.

Chance Voight Investment Corporation Limited (Chance Voight) today announced that it has completed a significant expansion of its South Island based back-office administrative functions that will support the rapid scaling up of its Australasian investment capabilities.

The Chance Voight back-office team is now operating from two separate office locations in the same street in Rangiora with the recent completion of the fit-out in the new office space. This expansion has been driven by the growth of Chance Voight resulting in our first location becoming full to capacity. The new office space now includes the ability for Chance Voight to hold large shareholder and investor meetings 'on site'.

The employee head count continues to grow. There have been a number of recent hires in marketing and accounting and for the first time the appointment of a Chance Voight General Manager.

Chance Voight's CEO, Bernard Whimp said:

"We are assembling a wonderful team of people and it is a great pleasure to work with this team day-to-day as we concentrate on stacking up 'wins' for Chance Voight at every turn.

As Chance Voight gets going in Australia it's essential that we build the capacity to successfully manage that growth. There are many promising investment situations emerging across Australasia as asset prices deflate. We are absolutely aiming to be an investment firm that capitalises on these cheap asset situations as they become available.

Chance Voight shareholders can have confidence that Chance Voight possesses the people and skills necessary to give life to Chance Voight's ambitions".
